What happened, as I see, at least, is that children who do not have a upper-level English class in high school, type of key and turn the pages and write sellate for the test or the role of 5 pads that is due by the end of the month or something and therefore do not have the chance to adjust the scenario enough to absorb gravitas and pensiveness of O'H and rare and bright illumination... The problem is that style is rate, it's always been and always will be. What I mean by that, at least in part, is that style is the same thing that differentiates a writer from the thousands of other fragments. It's the unique style of a particular writer. The writer in question here, remember, was broken and say all his books go out of circulation and was practical living in Hollywood money (David Thomson called it a form of concession) and tom Malcom Cowley and several years of reflection to copy the most and tragic compass sweet of Yoknapatawpha County. The water runs cold through Hall and Friends and neighbors. It's a true. So anyway, the style of the writer is his obsession largely because it is the individual seen in his texts. I mean, Shakespeare in Comedy is Coltrane and Godard, you know? the writer is enter in role for the whole atmosphere of the air cracks in different ways. And this also tells the perception that he can't see the sit to read the book or which way he want these things to appear. That style is a lot of things because I can't think of another.
